

I fully support XM Radio's effort to continue broadcasting local traffic and weather , as I believe this produces overall better broadcasting which is a win for consumers. XM Satellite Radio is a fee based service, whereas my local AM/FM channels are free. The NAB's approach goes against fair business practices, and strives to stifle competition.

Thank You,

Scott Sigmund